1.2 Interpretation:

- (a) A person includes a natural person, corporate or unincorporated body (whether or not having separate legal personality).
- (b) A reference to a party includes its successors and permitted assigns.
- (c) A reference to legislation or a legislative provision is a reference to it as amended or re-enacted. A reference to legislation or a legislative provision includes all subordinate legislation made under that legislation or legislative provision.
- (d) Any words following the terms including, include, in particular, for example or any similar expression shall be interpreted as illustrative and shall not limit the sense of the words preceding those terms.
- (e) A reference to writing or written excludes fax but not email.

2. Basis of contract

2.1 The Order constitutes an offer by the Customer to purchase Goods or Services or Goods and Services from the Supplier in accordance with these Conditions.

2.2 The Order shall be deemed to be accepted on the earlier of:

- (a) the Supplier issuing written acceptance of the Order; or
- (b) any act by the Supplier consistent with fulfilling the Order, at which point and on which date the Contract shall come into existence (Commencement Date).

2.3 Written acceptance of the Order shall state the following:

- (a) description of goods;

- (b) quantity;
- (c) price;
- (d) delivery location;
- (e) date of delivery; and
- (f) the Goods Specification, in each case as per the Order.

- 2.4 If the Supplier does not issue a written acceptance of the Order within 24 hours of receipt of the Order, the Customer shall be entitled to withdraw and cancel the Order by written notice to the Supplier.
- 2.5 These Conditions apply to the Contract to the exclusion of any other terms that the Supplier seeks to impose or incorporate, or which are implied by law, trade custom, practice or course of dealing.
- 2.6 All of these Conditions shall apply to the supply of both Goods and Services except where the application to one or the other is specified.
- 2.7 The Supplier waives any right it might otherwise have to rely on any term endorsed upon, delivered with or contained in any documents of the Supplier that is inconsistent with these Conditions.

3. Supply of Goods

- 3.1 The Supplier shall ensure that the Goods shall:
 - (a) correspond with their description and any applicable Goods Specification;
 - (b) be of satisfactory quality (within the meaning of the Sale of Goods Act 1979) and fit for any purpose held out by the Supplier or made known to the Supplier by the Customer, expressly or by implication, and in this respect the Customer relies on the Supplier's skill and judgement;
 - (c) where they are manufactured products, be free from defects in design (if the Supplier has designed the Goods), materials and workmanship and remain so for 36 months after delivery; and
 - (d) comply with all applicable statutory and regulatory requirements relating to the manufacture, labelling, packaging, storage, handling and delivery of the Goods.

- 3.2 The Supplier shall ensure that at all times it has and maintains all the licences, permissions, authorisations, consents and permits that it needs to carry out its obligations under the Contract in respect of the Goods.
- 3.3 The Customer may inspect and test the Goods at any time before delivery if this has been agreed in writing with the Supplier. The Supplier shall remain fully responsible for the Goods despite any such inspection or testing and any such inspection or testing shall not reduce or otherwise affect the Supplier's obligations under the Contract.
- 3.4 If following such inspection or testing the Customer considers that the Goods do not comply or are unlikely to comply with the Supplier's undertakings at clause 3.1, the Customer shall inform the Supplier and the Supplier shall immediately take such remedial action as is necessary to ensure compliance.
- 3.5 The Customer may conduct further inspections and tests after the Supplier has carried out its remedial actions.
- 3.6 The Supplier shall ensure that the country of origin of all Goods shall be: the EU; the UK; such other country as is stated in the Order; or as is otherwise agreed in writing between the Customer and the Supplier prior to the acceptance of the Order.

4. Delivery of Goods

- 4.1 The Supplier shall ensure that:
 - (a) the Goods are properly packed and secured in such manner as to enable them to reach their destination in good condition;
 - (b) each delivery of the Goods is accompanied by a delivery note which shows the date of the Order, the Order number (if any), the description and quantity of the Goods (including the code number of the Goods (where applicable)), special storage instructions (if any), and the country of origin;
 - (c) test certificates applicable to any Goods shall be either (a) delivered with the Goods to which they relate, or (b) shall be otherwise provided to the Customer at in advance of delivery via email or download, and in all events in a form which allows the Customer to correlate each test certificate to the specific Goods to which they relate;
 - (d) if the Supplier requires the Customer to return any packaging material to the Supplier, that fact is clearly stated on the delivery note. Any such packaging material shall only be returned to the Supplier at the cost of the Supplier; and

- (e) the Goods are insured against the usual risks and to their full value up to the point of delivery.

4.2 The Supplier shall deliver the Goods:

- (a) on the Delivery Date;
- (b) at the Delivery Location; and
- (c) during the hours 08:00 to 16:30 Monday to Thursday and 08:00 to 12:00 on Friday or as instructed by the Customer.

If the Supplier expects to deliver otherwise than in accordance with clause 4.2, then the Supplier shall notify the Customer of the expected time of delivery as soon as possible.

4.3 Delivery of the Goods shall be completed on the completion of unloading of the Goods at the Delivery Location.

4.4 The Supplier shall deliver the exact quantity of Goods ordered. The Customer may at its sole discretion reject all the Goods supplied or any excess Goods, and any rejected Goods shall be returnable at the Supplier's risk and expense. If the Supplier delivers more or less than the quantity of Goods ordered, and the Customer accepts the delivery, the Supplier shall make a pro rata adjustment to the invoice for the Goods.

4.5 The Supplier shall not deliver the Goods in instalments unless otherwise agreed in writing.

4.6 Subject to clause Error! Reference source not found., title and risk in the Goods shall pass to the Customer on completion of delivery.

4.7 The Customer shall be entitled to reject the Goods if, when they are inspected by the Customer, they do not conform to the terms of this Contract. The Customer shall have up to three months from the date of delivery to carry out such inspection. The Customer shall provide the Supplier with reasonable evidence that, on inspection, the Goods do not conform to the terms of this Contract. The Customer shall store the Goods pending inspection in accordance with the Supplier's instructions or, in the absence of such instructions, in accordance with good industry practice.

5. Supply of Services

5.1 The Supplier shall from the date set out in the Order and for the duration of the Contract supply the Services to the Customer in accordance with the terms of the Contract.

- 5.2 The Supplier shall meet any performance dates/times for the Services specified in the Order and time is of the essence in relation to any of those performance dates. The Supplier acknowledges that the timeliness of Services provided to the Customer is business critical. This includes computer numerically controlled machining, painting, grinding and plating.
- 5.3 In providing the Services, the Supplier shall:
- (a) co-operate with the Customer in all matters relating to the Services, and comply with all instructions of the Customer;
 - (b) perform the Services with the best care, skill and diligence in accordance with best practice in the Supplier's industry, profession or trade;
 - (c) use personnel who are suitably skilled and experienced to perform tasks assigned to them, and in sufficient number to ensure that the Supplier's obligations are fulfilled in accordance with the Contract;
 - (d) ensure that the Services will conform with all descriptions, standards and specifications set out in the Service Specification, and that the Deliverables shall be fit for any purpose that the Customer expressly or impliedly makes known to the Supplier;
 - (e) provide all equipment, tools and vehicles and such other items as are required to provide the Services;
 - (f) use the best quality goods, materials, standards and techniques, and ensure that the Deliverables, and all goods and materials supplied and used in the Services or transferred to the Customer, will be free from defects in workmanship, installation and design;
 - (g) obtain and at all times maintain all licences and consents which may be required for the provision of the Services;
 - (h) observe all health and safety rules and regulations and any other security requirements that apply at any of the Customer's premises;
 - (i) hold all materials, equipment and tools, drawings, specifications and data supplied by the Customer to the Supplier (Customer Materials) in safe custody at its own risk, maintain the Customer Materials in good condition until returned to the Customer, and not dispose of or use the Customer Materials other than in accordance with the Customer's written instructions or authorisation;
 - (j) not do or omit to do anything which may cause the Customer to lose any licence, authority, consent or permission upon which it relies for the purposes of conducting its business, and the Supplier acknowledges that the Customer may rely or act on the Services; and

- (k) comply with any additional obligations as set out in the Service Specification.

6. Customer remedies

- 6.1 If the Supplier fails to deliver the Goods on the applicable date and time or to perform the Services on the applicable date and time, the Customer shall, without limiting or affecting other rights or remedies available to it, have any one or more of the following rights and remedies:
- (a) to terminate the Contract with immediate effect by giving written notice to the Supplier;
 - (b) to reject the Goods or Services (in whole or in part) when delivery is offered;
 - (c) if due to delayed delivery the market price for the Goods has reduced, the Customer shall be entitled to pay the reduced market price;
 - (d) to refuse to accept any subsequent performance of the Services or delivery of the Goods which the Supplier attempts to make;
 - (e) to recover from the Supplier any costs incurred by the Customer in obtaining substitute goods or services from a third party;
 - (f) to require a refund from the Supplier of sums paid in advance for Services that the Supplier has not provided or Goods that it has not delivered; and
 - (g) to claim damages for any additional costs, loss or expenses incurred by the Customer which are in any way attributable to the Supplier's failure to meet such dates.
- 6.2 If the provision of the Services causes an unplanned outage of any of the Customer's machines, then in relation to each machine so affected, the Customer may, at its option, claim £300 for each hour or part thereof during which such machine is not operational by way of liquidated damages. The Customer acknowledges that such sum represents a genuine pre-estimate of the Customer's likely costs of lost production. At the Customer's sole discretion, this claim shall be satisfied by the Supplier by way of a deduction from the price of the Services; as a credit note against future Services; and/or as a cash payment. If the Customer exercises its rights in respect of late performance under this clause 6.2 it shall not be entitled to any of the remedies set out in clause 6.1 in respect of the late performance of the Services.
- 6.3 If the Supplier has delivered Goods that do not comply with the undertakings set out in clause 3.1, then, without limiting or affecting other rights or remedies available to it, the Customer shall have one or more of the following rights and remedies, whether or not it has accepted the Goods:

- (a) to terminate the Contract with immediate effect by giving written notice to the Supplier;
- (b) to reject the Goods (in whole or in part) whether or not title has passed in which case the Supplier shall collect the Goods within 7 days of notice in writing to do so. If the Goods are not so collected the Customer shall be entitled to charge for storage and/or to dispose of the Goods at the Supplier's expense;
- (c) to require the Supplier to repair or replace the rejected Goods, or to provide a full refund of the price of the rejected Goods (if paid);
- (d) to refuse to accept any subsequent delivery of the Goods which the Supplier attempts to make;
- (e) to recover from the Supplier any expenditure incurred by the Customer in obtaining substitute goods from a third party; and
- (f) to claim damages for any additional costs, loss or expenses incurred by the Customer arising from the Supplier's failure to supply Goods in accordance with clause 3.1.

6.4 If the Supplier has supplied Services that do not comply with the requirements of clause 5.3(d) then, without limiting or affecting other rights or remedies available to it, the Customer shall have one or more of the following rights and remedies:

- (a) to terminate the Contract with immediate effect by giving written notice to the Supplier;
- (b) to return the Deliverables to the Supplier at the Supplier's own risk and expense;
- (c) to require the Supplier to provide repeat performance of the Services, or to provide a full refund of the price paid for the Services [(if paid)];
- (d) to refuse to accept any subsequent performance of the Services which the Supplier attempts to make;
- (e) to recover from the Supplier any expenditure incurred by the Customer in obtaining substitute services or deliverables from a third party; and
- (f) to claim damages for any additional costs, loss or expenses incurred by the Customer arising from the Supplier's failure to comply with clause 5.3(d).

6.5 Notwithstanding clause 6.4(f), the Customer shall not be entitled to recover its consequential or indirect losses from the Supplier but the Customer shall be entitled to recover any and all losses falling within the following categories whether or not such losses are consequential or indirect:

- (a) procurement costs associated with procuring replacement Goods/Services;
- (b) the difference in price between the price of the Goods/Service on the Order and the price of any replacement Goods/Services;
- (c) lost production time caused by late/non-delivery of Goods/Services;
- (d) the cost of repairing/replacing damaged machinery, plant and/or equipment;
- (e) the costs of indemnifying any third party;
- (f) lost revenue and/or sales caused by delays or defects in Goods/Services supplied by the Supplier; and/or
- (g) the costs of rework or additional processes caused by delays or defects in Goods/Services supplied by the Supplier.

6.6 These Conditions shall extend to any substituted or remedial services or repaired or replacement goods supplied by the Supplier.

6.7 The Customer's rights and remedies under the Contract are in addition to, and not exclusive of, any rights and remedies implied by statute and common law.

7. Customer's obligations

7.1 The Customer shall:

- (a) provide the Supplier with reasonable access at reasonable times to the Customer's premises for the purpose of providing the Services; and
- (b) provide such necessary information for the provision of the Services as the Supplier may reasonably request.

8. Charges and payment

8.1 The price for the Goods:

- (a) shall be the price set out in the Order, or if no price is quoted, the price set out in the Supplier's published price list in force at the Commencement Date;
- (b) the Supplier shall notify the Customer in writing of any increase in its published prices at least 30 days in advance and, absent such notice, the Customer shall be entitled to purchase Goods at the price published prior to such change; and
- (c) shall be inclusive of the costs of packaging, insurance and carriage of the Goods. No extra charges shall be effective unless agreed in writing and signed by the Customer.

- 8.2 The charges for the Services shall be set out in the Order, and shall be the full and exclusive remuneration of the Supplier in respect of the performance of the Services. Unless otherwise agreed in writing by the Customer, the charges shall include every cost and expense of the Supplier directly or indirectly incurred in connection with the performance of the Services.
- 8.3 If Services are provided on a time and materials basis, then the Supplier shall maintain complete and accurate records of the time spent and materials used by the Supplier in providing the Services, and the Supplier shall allow the Customer to inspect such records at all reasonable times on request.
- 8.4 In respect of the Goods, the Supplier shall invoice the Customer on or at any time after completion of delivery. In respect of Services, the Supplier shall invoice the Customer on completion of the Services. Each invoice shall include such supporting information required by the Customer to verify the accuracy of the invoice, including the relevant purchase order number.
- 8.5 In consideration of the supply of Goods and/or Services by the Supplier, the Customer shall pay the invoiced amounts within 60 days of the date of a correctly rendered invoice to a bank account nominated in writing by the Supplier.
- 8.6 All amounts payable by the Customer under the Contract are exclusive of amounts in respect of valued added tax chargeable from time to time (VAT). Where any taxable supply for VAT purposes is made under the Contract by the Supplier to the Customer, the Customer shall, on receipt of a valid VAT invoice from the Supplier, pay to the Supplier such additional amounts in respect of VAT as are chargeable on the supply of the Goods or Services or both, as applicable, at the same time as payment is due for the supply of the Goods or Services.
- 8.7 The Customer may at any time, without notice to the Supplier, set off any liability of the Supplier to the Customer against any liability of the Customer to the Supplier, whether either liability is present or future, liquidated or unliquidated, and whether or not either liability arises under the Contract. Any exercise by the Customer of its rights under this clause shall not limit or affect any other rights or remedies available to it under the Contract or otherwise.

9. Intellectual property rights

- 9.1 All Intellectual Property Rights in or arising out of or in connection with the Services (other than Intellectual Property Rights in any Customer Materials) shall be owned by the Supplier.

- 9.2 The Supplier grants to the Customer, or shall procure the direct grant to the Customer of, a fully paid-up, worldwide, non-exclusive, royalty-free perpetual and irrevocable licence to copy and modify the Deliverables (excluding Customer Materials) for the purpose of receiving and using the Services and the Deliverables.
- 9.3 The Supplier acknowledges that all rights in the Customer Materials are and shall remain the exclusive property of the Customer.

10. Indemnity

- 10.1 The Supplier shall indemnify the Customer against all liabilities, costs, expenses, damages and losses (including any direct, indirect or consequential losses, loss of profit, loss of reputation and all interest, penalties and legal costs (calculated on a full indemnity basis) and all other reasonable professional costs and expenses) suffered or incurred by the Customer arising out of or in connection with:
- (a) any claim made against the Customer for actual or alleged infringement of a third party's intellectual property rights arising out of, or in connection with, the manufacture, supply or use of the Goods, or receipt, use or supply of the Services (excluding the Customer Materials);
 - (b) any claim made against the Customer by a third party for death, personal injury or damage to property arising out of, or in connection with, defects in the Goods, as delivered, or the Deliverables, to the extent that the defects in the Goods or Deliverables are attributable to the acts or omissions of the Supplier, its employees, agents or subcontractors; and
 - (c) any claim made against the Customer by a third party arising out of or in connection with the supply of the Goods, as delivered, or the Services, to the extent that such claim arises out of the breach, negligent performance or failure or delay in performance of the Contract by the Supplier, its employees, agents or subcontractors.

- 10.2 This clause 10 shall survive termination of the Contract.

11. Insurance

During the term of the Contract, the Supplier shall maintain in force, with a reputable insurance company, product liability insurance and public liability insurance to cover the liabilities that may arise under or in connection with the Contract, and shall produce to the Customer on demand both the insurance certificate giving details of cover and the receipt for the current year's premium in respect of each insurance.

12. Compliance with relevant laws and policies

- 12.1 In performing its obligations under the Contract, the Supplier shall:

- (a) comply with all applicable laws, statutes, regulations and codes from time to time in force; and
- (b) comply with the Mandatory Policies.

13. Termination

- 13.1 Without affecting any other right or remedy available to it, the Customer may terminate the Contract with immediate effect by giving written notice to the Supplier if the Supplier commits a breach of clause 12.1.
- 13.2 Without affecting any other right or remedy available to it, either party may terminate the Contract with immediate effect by giving written notice to the other party if:
- (a) the other party commits a material breach of any term of the Contract and (if such breach is remediable) fails to remedy that breach within a period of 14 days after being notified in writing to do so;
 - (b) the other party takes any step or action in connection with its entering administration, provisional liquidation or any composition or arrangement with its creditors (other than in relation to a solvent restructuring), obtaining a moratorium, being wound up (whether voluntarily or by order of the court, unless for the purpose of a solvent restructuring), having a receiver appointed to any of its assets or ceasing to carry on business or, if the step or action is taken in another jurisdiction, in connection with any analogous procedure in the relevant jurisdiction;
 - (c) the other party suspends, or threatens to suspend, or ceases or threatens to cease to carry on all or a substantial part of its business.

14. Consequences of termination

- 14.1 On termination of the Contract, the Supplier shall immediately deliver to the Customer all Deliverables whether or not then complete, and return all Customer Materials. If the Supplier fails to do so, then the Customer may enter the Supplier's premises and take possession of them. Until they have been returned or delivered, the Supplier shall be solely responsible for their safe keeping and will not use them for any purpose not connected with the Contract.
- 14.2 Termination or expiry of the Contract shall not affect the parties' rights and remedies that have accrued as at termination or expiry, including the right to claim damages in respect of any breach of the Contract which existed at or before the date of termination or expiry.

14.3 Any provision of the Contract that expressly or by implication is intended to come into or continue in force on or after termination or expiry of the Contract shall remain in full force and effect.

15. Confidentiality

15.1 Each party undertakes that it shall not at any time disclose to any person any confidential information concerning the business, assets, affairs, customers, clients or suppliers of the other party, except as permitted by clause 15.2. Confidential information includes all drawings, photographs and descriptions of business processes whether or not marked as confidential.

15.2 Each party may disclose the other party's confidential information:

- (a) to its employees, officers, representatives, contractors, subcontractors or advisers who need to know such information for the purposes of exercising the party's rights or carrying out its obligations under the Contract. Each party shall ensure that its employees, officers, representatives, contractors, subcontractors or advisers to whom it discloses the other party's confidential information comply with this clause 15; and
- (b) as may be required by law, a court of competent jurisdiction or any governmental or regulatory authority.

15.3 Neither party shall use the other party's confidential information for any purpose other than to exercise its rights and perform its obligations under or in connection with the Contract.

16. Force majeure

Neither party shall be in breach of the Contract or otherwise liable for any failure or delay in the performance of its obligations if such delay or failure results from events, circumstances or causes beyond its reasonable control. The time for performance of such obligations shall be extended accordingly. If the period of delay or non-performance continues for four weeks, the party not affected may terminate the Contract by giving 14 days' written notice to the affected party.

17. General

17.1 Assignment and other dealings.

- (a) The Customer may at any time assign, mortgage, charge, subcontract, delegate, declare a trust over or deal in any other manner with all or any of its rights and obligations under the Contract.

- (b) The Supplier shall not assign, transfer, mortgage, charge, delegate, declare a trust over or deal in any other manner with any of its rights and obligations under the Contract without the prior written consent of the Customer.

17.2 Subcontracting. The Supplier may not subcontract any or all of its rights or obligations under the Contract without the prior written consent of the Customer. If the Customer consents to any subcontracting by the Supplier, the Supplier shall remain responsible for all the acts and omissions of its subcontractors as if they were its own.

17.3 Notices.

- (a) Any notice given to a party under or in connection with the Contract shall be in writing and shall be sent by email to the following address for the Customer and to such address as the Supplier provides to the Customer:

Customer: sales@newfield.co.uk or to the contact on the PO.

- (b) Any notice shall be deemed to have been received if sent by email, at the time of transmission, or, if this time falls outside of 09:00 to 17:00 on a day when the banks are open for business in London, then 09:00 on the next such day.
- (c) This clause does not apply to the service of any proceedings or other documents in any legal action or, where applicable, any arbitration or other method of dispute resolution.

17.4 Severance. If any provision or part-provision of the Contract is or becomes invalid, illegal or unenforceable, it shall be deemed deleted, but that shall not affect the validity and enforceability of the rest of the Contract. If any provision of the Contract is deemed deleted under this clause 17.4 the parties shall negotiate in good faith to agree a replacement provision that, to the greatest extent possible, achieves the intended commercial result of the original provision.

17.5 Waiver.

- (a) Except as set out in clause 2.7, a waiver of any right or remedy is only effective if given in writing and shall not be deemed a waiver of any subsequent right or remedy.
- (b) A delay or failure to exercise, or the single or partial exercise of, any right or remedy shall not waive that or any other right or remedy, nor shall it prevent or restrict the further exercise of that or any other right or remedy.

17.6 No partnership or agency. Nothing in the Contract is intended to, or shall be deemed to, establish any partnership or joint venture between the parties, constitute either party the agent of the other, or authorise either party to make or enter into any commitments for or on behalf of the other party. Each party confirms it is acting on its own behalf and not for the benefit of any other person.

17.7 Entire agreement.

- (a) The Contract together with any related Orders, constitutes the entire agreement between the parties.
- (b) Each party acknowledges that in entering into the Contract it does not rely on any statement, representation, assurance or warranty (whether made innocently or negligently) that is not set out in the Contract. Each party agrees that it shall have no claim for innocent or negligent misrepresentation or negligent misstatement based on any statement in the Contract.

17.8 Third party rights.

- (a) The Contract does not give rise to any rights under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 to enforce any term of the Contract.
- (b) The rights of the parties to rescind or vary the Contract are not subject to the consent of any other person.

17.9 Variation. Except as set out in these Conditions, no variation of the Contract, including the introduction of any additional terms and conditions, shall be effective unless it is agreed in writing and signed by the parties or their authorised representatives.

17.10 Governing law. The Contract, and any dispute or claim (including non-contractual disputes or claims) arising out of or in connection with it or its subject matter or formation shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the law of England and Wales.

17.11 Jurisdiction. Each party irrevocably agrees that the courts of England and Wales shall have exclusive jurisdiction to settle any dispute or claim (including non-contractual disputes or claims) arising out of or in connection with the Contract or its subject matter or formation.
